hosted, in part, by The Studios at Logan, and produced in collaboration with ISNA-MSE, GLOBE STAR LLC, the Quality of Life Institute, Inc., TFH USA and the American Association of Multi-Sensory Environments (AAMSE).

PROGRAM FACILITATORS

Maurits Eijendaal, President of International Snoezelen Assn. (ISNA-MSE), Dr. Anthony M. McCrovitz, Exec. Director of Globe Star, llc and the Quality of Life Institute, Inc., Board Member of ISNA-MSE and past president (2016) of Indiana Counseling Association (ICA), Janice Ryan, OTD, OTR/L, Professor at University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, Dept of Occupational Therapy and Board Member of AAMSE, Karen Pool, General Manager of TFH USA designer and supplier of multi-sensory environments.

DAY 1 (Wednesday, May 24)

at Globe Star SB Office

The Globe Star SB location is home to an onsite Snoezelen-MSE Room. Groups will rotate through 3 - 4 different workshop spaces for training with four different facilitators, including a hands-on session in the Snoezelen-MSE Room. All groups will work together at closing session that will include a discussion panel & some share & review of self-study recordings taken during this day.

DAY 2 (Thursday, May 24)

at Logan location

This day will cover the history of Snoezelen, the design and development of multi-sensory environments, and diverse applications for recreational, educational, and therapeutic uses.

Presentation topics will include The Senses, A Sense of Time, and Colors (their energetic value, meanings and useful applications).

DAY 3 (Friday, May 24)

at Logan location

Sessions for this day will build and expand on teaching from Days 1 & 2, exploring further the capacity for relationship-building and the nurturing of social-emotional awareness.

Presentation topics will include Sound, Autism, Dementia, and Focus on Breathing.

* Please see full schedule for more details of the sessions
